Wednesday, July 29
Thursday, July 30
7pm
Free Admission

Join talented actors from New York's Piney Fork Press Theater as they present two evenings of intriguing original comedies by playwright Johnny Culver, in an informal atmosphere. Different scripts will be presented at each performance.

Among the exciting new works to be performed are: The House on the Hill, Ballerina Tea, Crummy, Bernice the Skunk, Wally, Across the Lake, A Little after Eleven and more.

Johnny takes on order-barking iceboxes, fruit-tossing superheroes, a far off war-torn society, a forgotten 70's game show, toad furniture, and the horrors of the escalator at Gimbels!

Before the show or after, enjoy a drink or quick meal next door at The Creek, either indoors or on their back patio. Visit them at www.creeklic.com.

Seating is limited! For more information, please contact johnnyculver@pineyforkpress.com.
